Instructions for Shareholder

A corporation in which you own stock that has had a change in control or a substantial change in capital structure must send you this statement by January 31 of the year following the calendar year of the change. You have received this statement because the corporation has reasonably determined that you may be required to recognize gain from the receipt of cash, stock, or other property that was exchanged for the corporation's stock. Report any gain from the exchange on Form 8949, Capital Gains and Losses. However, you cannot claim a (loss) on Form 8949 as a result of this exchange. See Pub. 550, chapter 4, for additional information.

Shareholder's taxpayer identification number (TIN).

For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your TIN (social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN)). However, the issuer has reported your complete TIN to the IRS.

Account number. May show an account or other unique number the payer corporation assigned to distinguish your account.

Box 1. Shows the date the stock was exchanged for cash, stock, or other property.

Box 2. Shows the aggregate amount of any cash and the fair market value of any stock or other property received by you in the exchange for the stock you held.

Box 3. Shows the number of shares of the corporation's stock that you held which were exchanged in the transaction.

Box 4. Shows the class or classes of stock that were exchanged.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form 1099-CAP and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/form1099CAP.
